

Pastor Nominating Committee
for Election by Congregation – December 17, 2023

Sharon Blount joined Second Pres in 2009. She is an Elder and participated on numerous committees during her six years of service. She has chaired the Nominating Committee, Mission and Advocacy Council, and an Associate Pastor Nominating Committee. She was also a member of the 175th Anniversary Committee, participated in the planning for our most recent building renovation, and helped to develop the 21-day Racial Equity and Social Justice Challenge.

Bryan Carr has been a member of Second Pres for over 30 years and has served as both a Deacon and an Elder, as well as previous APNC and PNC committees. He is an active member of the Shower Ministry crew and helps to support the SPC Men's Ministry efforts. Bryan is married to Julia and they have two adult children and two grandchildren.

Terry Crickenberger has been a member of Second Pres since the spring of 2022 coming from First Presbyterian in Waynesboro where he was an Elder, sang in the choir, and did some preaching. He is enrolled in year two of Union Presbyterian Seminary's Pathways Program. Terry is in mentoring with Lucretia McCulley to head the Mission and Advocacy Council and has a passion for serving in the Monday Walk-in program. He is a semi-retired Psychiatric NP working with children for almost 43 years. Terry loves Sunday worship and rarely misses.

Judy Cutting is a lifelong Presbyterian and member of Second Church for over 25 years. She brought her experience of membership in churches both large and small in NC, TX, and VA. In recent time, Judy has served as an Elder, chaired the Nominating Committee, and helped carry out plans and coordinate events at the 175th Celebration. She remains active in Adult Education and as a volunteer when needed.

Mary Sue Donahue is currently an Elder and has also served as a Deacon. She is on the Mission and Advocacy Council, served on the Capital Campaign Committee, and is involved in the Shower Ministry on Tuesdays. Mary Sue is married to Tom and they have two adult children, Charlie and Meredith.

Jed Dutton and his wife Kristen got married at Second Pres in 2011. They are grateful for the chance to learn about God from so many smart, caring people at this church. Their kids Jack and Molly attend Mary Munford Elementary School. Jed has been on the Session at Second since 2020. He went to UVa and is VP of marketing at TemperPack. If you don't count Kristen and Molly, the Duttons' favorite restaurant is PBR.

Tom Jefferson has been a member of Second since 2001. He served on the Session under Dr. Sparks and Dr. Evans. Tom is a past member of Budget and Finance and currently chair of the Parking Deck subcommittee of Property Council. He spent his life as a residential real estate agent and remains involved to this day! Tom writes: "Anne and I have 3 grown kids and each have 3 kids. Nine grand kids from age 24 to 9. Wonderful incentive to 'keep plugging' to see how they do!"

several Montreat conferences.

Elva Mapp, a lifelong Presbyterian, has served as an Elder and Deacon and is the volunteer coordinator for the Monday Walk-In lunch ministry. She has worked on the Christian Education, Worship, and Mission and Advocacy Councils, chaired the Nominating Committee twice, and is a member of the Church Adult Choir and the RVA Street Singers (a community choir sponsored by Second). Elva has visited Guatemala on church trips four times and gone to Lucretia McCulley joined Second Presbyterian in 2009. Since that time, she has served three terms on the Session. Most recently, she co-chaired the Mission and Advocacy Council for six years and she has also served as Membership Council chair. Lucretia volunteers at Walk-In (Lunch on Mondays) and teaches the children's Bible Readiness Class.
